DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 4, 13 and 18-20 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 27 May 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

4. Claims 1, 5-10, 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gazca-Ortiz et al, '902 in view of Mulroy et al, US006273785B1. '902 discloses the claimed invention, including a pair of porous plates supported by a support plate and pressurized by fluid received from the support plate which flows through the porous plates and supports the two surfaces of the material within a gap between the plates, the fluid substantially preventing particles and other contaminants generated from reaching the surfaces of the material located on the second side of the encapsulation device. '902 does not disclose that the fluid is pressurized air. '785, in a device that uses an encapsulation system to support a workpiece for processing, teaches that the fluid can be water, or air. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to have provided '902 with pressurized air as the fluid, as taught by '785, column 10, lines 48-53, as functional equivalents for the purpose of supporting and protecting a workpiece.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 3, 12 and 16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Please refer to the previous action for the statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 5-10, 14 and 15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. The examiner agrees that '902 does not anticipate the invention now set forth in claims 1, 5-10, 14 and 15. Please refer to the new rejection above.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
